

"I bitterly resent the abuse of American citizenship or residence for the purpose of political or warlike propaganda in foreign countries.

"In America there can be no place for those who, while claiming equal citizenship with us and enjoying its privileges under our flag, yet continue their allegiance to another country.

"There can be no such thing as *** dual citizenship in America. Under no guise can this country be made the breeding place of intrigues.

The Vows of Yesterday.

"Two years have passed, and what of today? Are we to forget the vows of yesterday? Is the wanton destruction in France and Belgium and on the seas to be condoned? Shall subtle propaganda again lift its poisonous head to weaken our friendships? Are those who made the supreme sacrifice no longer to be remembered among us?"

"The answer is that the principles for which America fought are immutable, and the allies beside whom we fought are our friends. America shall remain steadfast in her attitude against aggression and insist that outlaw nations be held to full responsibility and pay the full penalty for their misdeeds to the end that in the future all nations may know the cost of such misdeeds against civilization."

"Hearts Are Still Heavy."

"We must not be asked to dwell upon the horrors on the Rhine when our hearts still are heavy with the sorrows of the Rhine. Martin W. Littleton, who followed Gen. Pershing, said: 'We must not be asked to bury our grievances before we have finished burying our dead.'"

Mr. Littleton read a letter received today from Edward von Mach, organizer of the "Rhine Horror" meeting. Von Mach charged "American citizenship had been hideously abused." Shouts of "Lie! lie!" mingled with hisses.

More applause followed Mr. Littleton's calling promoters of the "Rhine Horror" meeting "traitors to the allied governments."

Enemy Not Yanks' Allies.

"We must not be asked to grasp the bloody hands so recently lifted to slay the civilization of the world while our duty calls us to hold up the hands of those who saved that civilization," Mr. Littleton continued.

"We must not be asked to take part in splitting the spirit of the allies by compromising with the incorrigible criminality of the common enemy."

Maj. Gen. Wood was unable to be present and sent a letter in which he said:

"We must be watchful of the enemy within our gates. Our danger is not so much from the Red as from our own indifference. We must strengthen the spirit of Americanism. We must prevent the entry into this country of races which cannot be assimilated, whose children cannot intermarry with our own. The American cement has had about all the sand put into it that it will stand."

Senator Frank O. Willis of Ohio also spoke.

Booze Smugglers Engage Soldiers in Border Battle

El Paso, Tex., March 18.—An American immigration officer, two United States soldiers, and two liquor smugglers were engaged in a battle on the Rio Grande two miles from El Paso last night.

The fight between the Americans and the smugglers lasted several hours, both sides firing at each other sporadically throughout the night. Fifty-seven quarts of whiskey abandoned by the smugglers were discovered at daylight.

Rafael D. Davis, commander of customs guards for the district of Chihuahua, Mexico, announced that guards under his command arrested five men this morning in the vicinity of the border fight of last night. One of the prisoners was wounded.

Police Doubt Burglars in Death of Yale Man

Buffalo, N. Y., March 18.—[Special.]—That Luther P. Graves, Yale graduate and society man, was assassinated by two men who lay in ambush for him, is the theory to which police turned tonight in investigating the murder, committed early this morning.

Graves was shot twice as he was cutting "across yards" to his home in North street after pulling his automobile into his garage.

Throughout the incoherent statements which Graves made on his deathbed, he insisted he had been caught by burglars, and this was the first theory of the police. More careful examination of the circumstances of the crime, however, led the police to abandon the burglar theory.

Says Austrian Lawmakers Must O. K. Allied Grants

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

VIENNA, March 18.—[Special.]—The Austrian government has informed parliament that it is telegraphing Dr. Mayr, the Austrian chancellor, who is now at London in conference with the allied supreme council, that the Austrian parliament reserves the right to vote on any concessions proposed in return for credits. The announcement follows newspaper reports that Dr. Mayr promised to grant tobacco monopolies and a certain percentage of the railroad revenues as guarantees for a loan.

Padua's Labor Chamber Destroyed by Fascists

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

ROME, March 18.—Following labor disturbances in Padua, members of the Fascist extreme Nationalists set fire to the chamber of labor there. On account of the difficulties one large factory at Padua and the lives of the workers, following the action of the Michelin tire company in Turin, will probably close down in a few days.

Pupils in German Schools to Study Versailles Treaty

BERLIN, March 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—The Reichstag has adopted a resolution providing for classroom study of the Versailles peace treaty in the advanced classes of graded schools.

The resolution was introduced by the German People's party.

Montana Bachelors Join to Combat Tax of State

Miles City, Mont., March 18.—Organization of an association of unmarried adult males was inaugurated here today for the purpose of contesting in the Supreme court the validity of the so-called bachelors' tax, now before the Montana legislature.

Congo Natives Revolt; Burn Belgian Trading Posts

ANTWERP, March 18.—Natives of the equatorial district of Congo Free State have risen and burned fifty trading posts, according to a wireless dispatch from Boma, Congo Free State, published by the newspaper Nippon.

MRS. LEEDS IN FLORIDA NEAR STILLMAN YACHT

Report Banker's Friend Is at Miami.

City and had conferences with Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft, attorneys of record for Mrs. Stillman, and Stanchfield & Levy, who, like Mr. Brennan, are counsel for Mrs. Stillman. Mr. Brennan would not discuss the conference, but he carried back with him a bulky package, which was said to contain all the papers in the case.

It is expected that these will be filed with Justice Morschauer at the hearing next Wednesday, the first papers to be filed in the action except the purely formal notices of the suit and the different hearings and appointments.

Mr. Brennan afterward said that the only purpose of the hearing would be to compel Mr. Stillman to submit to an examination of his financial resources. He had several letters in his hand.

"I am getting dozens of anonymous letters," he said, "and all of them denounce Mr. Stillman."

Cornelius J. Sullivan, of counsel for Mr. Stillman, would not comment on Wednesday's hearing, nor would he admit that it indicated any change of plan.

"Mr. Stillman will not discuss the case with any one," he said. "I may say that he is not doing any talking by the advice of counsel."

It was reported late tonight that Mr. Stillman's lawyers had already started an effort to block his examination with regard to his income. One rumor had it that his attorneys went before Justice Seeger and obtained a temporary "stay" order.

Would Conceal His Income.

Presumably such an order would not affect the main suit, but would prevent the questioning of the banker on his income during the alimony hearing and delay such quizzing until the main case is heard. Justice Seeger was said to have set the argument on the stay order for tomorrow morning at Newburgh.

While Mr. Stillman was maintaining his silence, the Wall street district was teeming with reports to the effect that he might resist or be forced out of the presidency of the National City bank. These reports were denied by officials of the bank.

Still other reports flying about were to the effect that the district attorney might undertake an investigation of Stillman's conduct with "Mrs. Leeds" and "Edna" and any other women. No member of the district attorney's staff, however, would discuss this possibility.

The theatrical district buzzed with gossip about the Stillman case today, although there were few who could recall "Mrs. Leeds," whose career on Broadway was apparently brief.

Broadway Knows Stillman.

Mr. Stillman appeared to be better known, and there were reports that he had been acquainted with several young women of the stage, one of whom, recently married, was said to be in a hospital in Manhattan.

It was learned that "Mr. Leeds" was not without a rival before he finally won the affection of Mrs. Leeds, who was said to have been admired by a man dancer well known on Broadway. From her former chauffeur it was learned that "Mr. Leeds" seldom visited the apartment at 64 East Eighty-sixth street on Sunday, and that "Mrs. Leeds," her friend, Miss May Hadden, and two young men were accustomed to make automobile trips to Long Beach on that day.

It was learned that "Mrs. Leeds" stay with "The Century Girl" was not more than thirty days. "Mr. Leeds" was said to have been introduced as a wealthy business man. At that time "Mrs. Leeds," although she appeared on the company pay roll as "Florence Leeds," was known to her intimate friends as "Flo" Lawlor.

William Richmond, now connected with Leo Feist, music publisher, said that Florence Leeds or Lawlor did a singing and dancing act in his cabaret show at the Nanking gardens, Newark, N. J.

Chauffeur Identifies Girl.

Herman Carlson, chauffeur for "Mrs. Leeds," while she lived at 64 East Eighty-sixth street, and for a short time at the Hotel Langdon, said he was positive that James S. Lawlor, proprietor of a plumbing shop at 325 Sixth avenue, was "Mrs. Leeds' father, and said he had often stopped for him in "Mrs. Leeds' automobile at his home, 1758 Amsterdam avenue.

Members of the Lawlor family have denied any relationship with "Mrs. Leeds."

FIGURES IN STILLMAN JANGLE

MRS. JAMES A. STILLMAN, seen in her famous polka dot bandanna headress, from a recent photograph.

MRS. SOPHIA ERICKSON BART-KOFF, who was employed as maid by Mrs. Leeds, young woman named by Mrs. Stillman in her counter charges against her husband.

Her affidavit as to "Mr. Leeds" and her identification of him as James A. Stillman is said to be one of the strongest cards in Mrs. "Flo" Potter Stillman's counter charges.

During the summer of 1918, before the Leeds baby was born, Mrs. Bart-Koff was a maid in the Leeds household. Since then she has been married and is now the mother of two babies. She says her sympathy for Mrs. Stillman has prompted her to come forward in her defense.

BABIES, UNCONSCIOUS OF SCANDAL, TANGLED IN FIGHT FOR MILLIONS

New York, March 18.—[Special.]—While the two opposing figures in New York's greatest divorce scandal are Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillman, there are two babies whose interests clash just as diametrically. Both babies have been spotted with charges of illegitimacy.

One is the admitted son of Mrs. Stillman, but not the admitted son of Mr. Stillman.

The other is the admitted son of Mrs. Florence H. Leeds, show girl, and, according to allegations of Mrs. Stillman, the illegitimate son of Mr. Stillman. The Stillman boy, Guy, is 28 months old. The Leeds boy, Jay, is two months older.

The Stillman boy, if he withstands Mr. Stillman's attack and is held by the court to be the son of Mr. Stillman, will inherit $2,500,000 from a trust fund left by the elder Stillman for his grandchildren. If proved illegitimate, he automatically loses all inheritance rights under the New York laws.

The Leeds boy, if he is the son of Mr. Stillman, may have grounds for claiming that he, too, is the grandson of the elder Stillman, and, therefore, entitled to his share of the $9,000,000 trust fund.

While license bureau of the secretary of state showed that "Mrs. Leeds' application for a license had been indorsed by James M. Gaffney, 1 West Fifty-fourth street, whose home address was later found to be at 2136 Gleason avenue, the Bronx.

Gaffney, a young man, denied that he knew "Mrs. Leeds," or that he had knowingly indorsed her application. He was formerly employed by the New York truck company as a bookkeeper, at the Fifty-fourth street address, and as he signed a great many papers, might have signed the application without remembering it.

VALUE IMPORTS ON MARKET PRICE, TENTATIVE PLAN

Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—Details of the proposed bill changing the basis of valuation of imports were considered today by Republican members of the house ways and means committee, who tentatively decided that the bill should provide for the computing of import duties on the basis of the average wholesale selling prices in the principal American markets, and that the appraisers should be given authority to determine this average value twice a year.

It was Chairman Fordney's belief that the average wholesale selling price at the particular port of entry on the date of arrival of the shipment should be the basis.

The plan contemplates action on Jan. 1 and July 1, the market price then announced to remain in effect for six months.

GIVES UP FOR OLD CRIME.

Tacoma, Wash., March 18.—Clara W. Blackman, a lawyer, walked into the police department and announced that he killed his wife, Bethel Blackman, in Wood county, Tex., Oct. 25, 1918. A telegram received from A. Jolly, sheriff of the Texas county, today verified the confession.

ONE SHOT LEFT AS BANDIT DIES FIGHTING POLICE

Patrolman Wounded in Duel on West Side

The "two gun" bandit lay in the county morgue last night with the results of his desperate resistance to the police unaltered. No identification had been obtained of the youthful outlaw who fought thirty policemen from the rear porch of a flat building at 1127 Fifth avenue, until he died, laughing, swearing and joking, of many wounds. One bullet remained in his weapons.

Police have wired his description all over the country. They believe he was wanted for murder, and preferred to die in battle rather than face a hangman's noose.

Policeman James Nix attempted to question the man at Madison street and Francisco avenue. The answer was a bullet which penetrated the policeman's left leg. Nix sounded the alarm and pursued the bandit, keeping up a running fire. Policeman Walter Berndt joined the chase. Nix, weak from loss of blood, fell after a chase of several blocks.

Policeman Wounds Bandit.

Just west of Our Lady of Sorrows church, the bandit scaled an iron picket fence. Policeman Berndt fired his first clear shot and put a bullet in the bandit's right shoulder. The man screamed as he returned the fire.

The bandit reached the alley, climbed the stairs of a two story brick building at 1127 Fifth avenue, and took up his stand in a dark corner, prepared to shoot it out.

Leut. William Fitzgerald arrived at this point with a squad of Warren avenue policemen. A few moments later the shot gun squad from the detective bureau reached the scene.

Sergt. C. J. Fitzgerald and Policeman John Finerty located the bandit on the porch. Other policemen, who had climbed to the roof of a two story building across the alley, opened a steady fusillade.

Mrs. Anna Sutherland lives alone in the apartment behind which the gunman took refuge. Going through her apartment, Sergt. Fitzgerald, Sergt. Garrett Brennan, and Policeman Finerty, swept the back porch with a steady fire. The bandit fired six bullets through the glass door at the police.

"Come and get me you—" the bandit called. Finerty fired, his bullet striking the man in the temple. The three rushed out on the porch. One revolver lay by the fallen man. He gripped another and tried to fire a last shot as he sank back dead.

Label Reads "John Yeager."

A label on the bandit's coat bore the name "John Yeager" and the name of an Akron, O., tailoring firm. The firm has gone out of business, and Akron police were not able to identify the man. He was about 30 years old, 5 feet 10 inches in height, and weighed about 180 pounds.

Police believe he may have been the murderer of Louis Sachs, 40, of 1656 South St. Louis avenue, who was shot through the head in a saloon at 1932 West Lake street early Thursday night.

Massachusetts Keeps on Voting on Prohibition

Boston, Mass., March 18.—Voters of cities and towns in this state will continue to exercise the local option of deciding whether they want beer and wines containing not more than 2.75 per cent of alcohol sold in their communities.

The full bench of the supreme court today held that cities and towns must comply with the provisions of the state statute for an annual vote on the question, although some provisions of the statute are inoperative in view of the national prohibition law.

Nebraska Votes in Favor of Censorship of Films

Lincoln, Neb., March 18.—The Nebraska lower house today by a vote of 60 to 35 passed the bill providing for censorship of moving pictures.

HARD BLOW FOR SNOOPERS WITH NO DRY WARRANT

Man's Home His Castle Federal Judge Holds

Springfield, Ill., March 18.—Federal Judge Louis Fitzhugh in the district court here this morning made a ruling decision that prohibition agents must have search warrants before they may enter private homes in search of illegal liquor, and that in addition they must have evidence that liquor is sold before search warrants can be issued.

The ruling, it was declared by the district attorney, is probably the most drastic yet made by the courts in construing the Volstead act. It upsets the old theory that a man's home is his castle, and in effect means that prohibition agents may make all the liquor in the country in their own homes without fear of government interference. Prohibition cases now pending would be thrown out of court on appeal upon the ruling.

It was immediately announced by the district attorney that an appeal to the federal court of appeals and then to the supreme court of the United States will be taken.

"Give Us Light Wine and Beer."

Sacramento, Cal., March 18.—A resolution to memorialize congress in favor of light wine and beer passed the assembly of the state legislature by a vote of 43 to 34.

Rich Man Wins Liquor

Miami, Fla., March 18.—The case against Harry St. Francis, who was charged with selling liquor in violation of prohibition, was dismissed today by United States commissioner Graham when the evidence was brought before him for argument.

The private car was ordered released when a Negro porter testified that he had placed the liquor aboard it without the knowledge or consent of the car owner.

ENTENTE ARMIES MOVE EAST TO ESSEN OUTSKIRTS

Occupy Stations Along
Important Railway.

DUESSELDORF, March 18.—[Associated Press.]—The occupation area has been extended from Duesseldorf to stations all along the railroad running from Duesseldorf to Essen to within two and a half miles of Essen. The central freight yard at Wedau, the largest in the Ruhr district, and Mulheim station are guarded by French troops. Duesseldorf is quiet.

A number of manufacturers and business men are moving their offices to Berlin, Hanover, and other interior cities of Germany, and some are transferring their entire plants. Many wealthy persons also are moving into the interior.

French Occupy Mulheim.
BERLIN, March 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—Franco-Belgian troops have occupied the western quarter of Mulheim-on-Ruhr and the railway station at Speldorf. Other small allied forces have occupied the west railway station at Oberhausen and look in the vicinity of the Emischer canal.

The recent entry of some armed British ships in German harbors, it was announced in the Reichstag today, is seriously engaging the attention of the German government, in view of the "gravity of the principle involved."

Chancellor Fehrenbach urged the speedy passage of the disarmament bill, warning that delay, for which neither he nor the government could take the responsibility, would entail danger.

A recruiting committee is discussing the measure.

Berlin Protests to Allies.
Reports of clashes in a number of upper Silesian districts have caused the German government to protest to the interallied commission in Oppeln against the revival of what it terms "Polish terrorism."

In official quarters it was declared today that several outrages were committed in the Rybnik district in the last few days, houses having been burned, one man murdered and others beaten, but that news of the incidents had not been made public here in the "fear that it would adversely affect the tide of German voters pouring into the plebiscite zone."

Silesia Is Quiet.
Officially, it is reported the situation in Silesia generally is quiet, but rumors persist that armed German and Polish forces are gathering on the frontier in anticipation of fighting.

Allies Warn Germany.
PARIS, March 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—The council of ambassadors today handed a note to the German plebiscite delegation here concerning the concentration of German troops on the upper Silesian frontier.

The communication, which is couched in terms similar to the warning sent to Berlin Thursday by the French government, reiterates that the maintenance of order in Upper Silesia is a matter of order in the interallied commission under control to the interallied commission. Germany, it says, will be held responsible for any disorders arising from the entry of armed German forces into the plebiscite area.

A similar note was sent by the council to the Polish plebiscite delegation.

STINNES UNDER FIRE
BY GEORGE SELDES.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

BERLIN, March 18.—[The German national must control Hugo Stinnes with the utmost energy if we are to come to new negotiations with the entente," declares today's issue of the weekly World Theater.

This attack is one of many hits now being engaged in between supporters of Herr Stinnes, Germany's coal and industry king, and those of Dr. Walter Simons, the foreign minister. For the first time in his career Herr Stinnes is feeling the blows of his political enemies.

Stinnes, who has built the biggest fortune in Germany and has employed thousands more than the Krupp or Thyssens, until recently remained immune from attack, but today his political opponents are protesting loudly against the "Stinnesization of Germany."

"Stinnes is the reason that the negotiations at the London conference were not successful," continues the World Theater. "Stinnes must be prevented from overthrowing Dr. Simons."

Lords Hear Reparations Bill.
LONDON, March 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—The house of commons tonight passed the third reading of the reparations bill. The bill provides for a levy of 50 per cent on German goods, but this provision will not be effective until March 31.

After the house of commons had passed the measure it was read for the first time in the house of lords.

JOSEPHUS OUT TO TRIM BUNCH ON NAVY STORY
Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—Josephus Daniels, editor of the Raleigh (N. C.) News and Observer, arrived in Washington today on an assignment from his own newspaper. Mr. Daniels, who has been out of practice in newspaper article writing for eight years, says he is going to go around with some of the old Washington correspondents to see how the boys get the stuff to write about.

He is going to learn in with the newspaper boys when they go to Secretary Denby's conference tomorrow and is expected to ask Mr. Denby some pointed questions, among them being a suggestion to him by some of the hand-dipped hands at the business, such as:

"Mr. Secretary, I see where an army officer, Gen. Mitchell, says an army officer can blow your ships out of the water. Do you think he can do it?"

"Mr. Secretary, will you let me consult you for your wise decision in keeping the officers' wine mess abolished?"

"Mr. Secretary, what are you going to do with that obstreperous Admiral?"

MAKING MURDER A HAZARDOUS PURSUIT

Carl Wanderer was bright, cheerful, and nonchalant yesterday before a jury brought in a verdict condemning him to be hanged for the murder of the "poor boob." He is pictured here with one of his attorneys, Mrs. Irene Lefkow.

Wanderer even contrived to laugh after the verdict. But in less guarded moments the ex-soldier betrayed that its significance was not lost to him. The picture shows him in conversation with Everett Jennings, a lawyer who interested himself in the trial, though not identified with it formally.

CRIME FALLS OFF IN FITZMORRIS' REIGN AS CHIEF

100,000 Idle, Record
Beats 1920's.

With more than 100,000 unemployed in Chicago, crime has decreased 7.7 per cent during the winter, though robberies have increased 28.4 per cent.

Crime statistics covering the 124 days preceding March 15—the period since Chief Fitzmorris took office, Nov. 11, 1920—show that 5,102 crimes were reported, compared to 5,533 during the same period a year ago, when former Chief of Police Garrity held command.

Unemployment is responsible for the increase in robberies, Chief Fitzmorris believes. Burglary, which requires skill and experience, is diminishing.

Chicago Alone Shows Decrease.
Robbery, the quickest and easiest way for the man without work to get cash for food, liquor, or clothes, has increased by 404 cases during the period of Fitzmorris' reign.

"I am told by Henry Barrett Chamberlain, head of the crime commission, that Chicago is the only large city in the United States which can show a downward slope to this winter's crime curve," Chief Fitzmorris said.

"I find the increase in robberies is general, with the exception of one or two precincts. Burglary is on the downward trend everywhere except on the north side."

All miscellaneous crime—brogues, checks, con games, assaults, and even murder—is on the decrease, the commission shows.

Comparison of Two Regimes.
A comparison of the 124 day period under Chief Fitzmorris and his predecessor follows:

Crime—	Garrity, 1920	Fitzmorris, 1921	Increase or decrease
Larcenies	1,970	1,556	-414
Burglaries	5,083	1,802	-3,281
Robberies	1,021	1,425	+404
Other crimes	459	289	-170
Totals	5,533	5,102	-431

In February the crime rate in all cities, as compared to February of 1920 was 2.96 per cent, an increase of 39 per cent in the number of robberies holding the general decrease figure down. Larcenies decreased 15 per cent, burglaries 3.25 per cent, and other crimes 50.9 per cent during the month.

St. Louis Police to Stop Sale of Ford's Journal
St. Louis, Mo., March 18.—An order prohibiting street sales of the "Dear Born Independent," Henry Ford's paper, will be issued here tomorrow, Chief of Police Martin O'Brien announced tonight.

The sale by critics on the streets constitutes a law violation, punishable under defamation and criminal libel statutes and the disturbance of the peace ordinance, Charles H. Dause, city counselor, ruled today.

ONE FARMER KILLS ANOTHER.
Ridgeland, Wis., March 18.—Joe Miller, a farmer of Cassin, was killed by John Titus, a neighboring farmer. Titus said he tried to frighten Miller, who was said to be demoted, by pointing a rifle at him. The rifle was discharged accidentally.

Here are the twelve men who balanced the scales of justice in favor of the "poor boob" whom Wanderer shot to death after inducing his victim to take part in a fake holdup. The jury in Wanderer's previous trial sentenced him to twenty-five years in the penitentiary for the murder of his wife. The latter perished because her husband had tired of her, the "poor boob" because Wanderer wished to preserve the secret of the death plot. The jurors who sentenced Wanderer to share the "poor boob's" fate are seated, from left to right, Evan Iverson, William Johnson, Joseph Mueller, Isadore Kohn, Andrew P. Peterson, and Aubrey Ambrose. Standing—Fred W. Butcher, Benjamin F. Lewis, Beryl Tabor, William Goelitz, William J. Tracy, and George W. Miller.

WASHINGTON NEWS —IN BRIEF—

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 18.—The present attitude of President Harding is opposed to the resumption of the Versailles treaty to the senate, opposed to ratification of the peace terms proper without the covenant, and opposed to entrance into the present league of nations.

Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy and editor of the Raleigh, N. C., News and Observer, arrived in the role of correspondent for his own paper.

Attorney General Daugherty said today that the case of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist prisoner at Atlanta, interested him deeply and that he proposed to begin next Sunday a review of his case.

President Harding discussed with the cabinet proposals to provide emergency relief to agriculture, either by an embargo on imports or by tariff action.

Figures of the bureau of labor statistics on employment conditions in February indicate a more favorable trend than was shown by data compiled by the United States employment service.

The war department announced today that the draft slacker list had been reduced to 160,000 names and that publication of the list would begin within two weeks.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover has approved increased activity on the part of the war finance corporation in the financing of exports.

DINERS TO SING OHIO'S GLORY IN U. S. POLITICS

Chicagoans who hail from Ohio plan an unusually elaborate celebration this year, because their native state has been so prominent in the political spotlight for the last twelve months. A dinner, followed by a dance, will be given at the Drake hotel on March 24.

Brig. Gen. Chas. G. Dawes, Orva G. Williams, president of the Troquois club, and A. N. Marquis, president of the Hamilton club, are among the invited guests.

The singers will include Jerome Uhl and Mrs. L. O. Meacham. Malina, the magician, also is on the program.

Jessie McCutcheon, Raleigh Nelson, Mrs. Russell Mathias, and Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Durbin will be among the guests. Wilbur Blessing, Evan Evans, and Wilbur D. Nesbitt are in charge of arrangements.

FOREIGN NEWS —IN BRIEF—

LONDON.—Russo-Polish peace treaty is signed at Riga.

BRITISH LEADER UTTERS PLEA FOR A FRIENDLY U. S.

Robert Cecil Deplores
"Cooling Cordiality."

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, March 18.—A plea for better relations between Great Britain and America was made by Lord Robert Cecil at the American Luncheon club in London today.

Many persons felt, he said, that the two years of peace had brought greater differences between the two countries than did the four years of war.

Relations Less Cordial.
"Undoubtedly there has been a cooling off in the cordiality of our relations," he said. "There is much criticism, I am told, across the Atlantic, of Great Britain's stand on the questions of Ireland, the navy, oil and canals."

It seems pitiful that these matters, all of which could be adjusted through friendly conversations, should interrupt, injure or hinder the relations of the two countries.

"I will never indulge in incriminations against the United States. I do not know enough of American affairs to do so with justice, but when the history comes to be written I doubt whether either America or England will come out with clean hands."

Would Wipe Out the Past.
"Both nations had the same ideals for many years. Let us lay aside the past and fix our eyes upon the future. We had a great vision four years ago. Cannot we revive or recall it? Surely it only requires knowledge and frankness and mutual acquaintance to effect our desires."

SAY MILLIONAIRE PENCIL MAN WAS NOT MARRIED
New York, March 18.—The task of determining whether the late Samuel Kraus, vice president of the Eagle Pencil company, was married was referred today to John G. Saxe by Surrogate James A. Foley. By will Mr. Kraus bequeathed his estate, said to be valued at $1,000,000, to Mrs. Adeline Thomas, whom he described in the document as "my daughter."

The question of marriage has been raised by Bert Kraus of Brooklyn, who declared his uncle was a bachelor. He has started proceedings to contest the validity of the will on the ground his uncle was of unsound mind and unduly influenced. The contestant also declares his uncle was a bachelor.

Supporting the last contention, Bert Kraus filed with the surrogate affidavits of Henry Olesheimer, president of the Metropolitan bank; Nathan S. Jones, president of the Manufacturers Trust company; Emil Berolzheimer, president of the Eagle Pencil company, and Victor B. Wolf, all of whom declared they knew Samuel Kraus intimately many years and that Kraus was reputed among his associates to be and was known by them as a bachelor.

Mrs. Thomas denies the plaintiff's allegation and also contends he is not a nephew of Samuel Kraus.

Anne Morgan Here to Seek Aid for Needy of France
Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, will arrive here today. Before she leaves she hopes to collect a considerable part of the $2,000,000 she seeks for destitute women and children of France. She will confer with Brig. Gen. Charles G. Dawes, J. Ogden Armour, and others.

Immigrant Tide Will Rise Until March 25
LONDON, March 18.—One thousand immigrants for the United States will sail on the Adriatic March 23, it is announced here. The floodgates of European emigration will remain open until March 25, it is said at the American consulate here.

U. S. LIFT'S WAR SUPERVISION OF PACKING PLANTS
Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—Formal announcement of the termination of government supervision of stockyards and live stock commission firms, effective March 31, was made today by the bureau of markets, department of agriculture. This action closes one of the important war-time activities of the department, dating back to the enactment of the food control (Lever) act of Aug. 19, 1917, repealed March 3.

LEGS AND THE LAW

Suffrage Has Brought an Interesting Complication for the Election Commission.

WOMAN VOTER IN BOOTH.
It is evident that when the legislature passed the election law the possibility of equal suffrage of men and women did not weigh heavily on the legislators' minds. For in the statute was inserted a provision that the curtain shall be hung so that twenty-four inches of the voter's legs may be seen.

The women voters of Waukegan have raised the issue of whether it is any of the election officials' business how high they wear their skirts. It is, in truth, a ticklish question, and one upon which, as yet, no ruling has been rendered. In the photograph above the proper length of the curtain is indicated, but literally the fair elector is not complying with the law.

BUSINESS SHIP CLOSE HAULED, BUT ROLLS LESS
Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—Reports on employment conditions for February, as compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, give a more favorable view of the situation than the figures of the United States employment service made public earlier in the week.

The later figures show that in ten out of fourteen groups of industries there were increases in the number of persons employed in February. In four there were decreases. In eight groups there were increases in money paid to employees; in the other six decreases.

The employment service survey showed decreases in the number on the payroll on Feb. 25, as compared with the number on Jan. 31, in nine out of fourteen groups.

The bureau of labor statistics figures show decrease in the number of persons employed and in the amount of the pay roll in all fourteen industries when compared with February, 1920.

The largest decreases in the number of persons employed from a year ago were 44.2 per cent in the hosiery and underwear industry, 41.2 per cent in automobiles, 36.3 per cent in leather, and 35.1 per cent in woolen.

Increases in the number employed in February, 1921, as compared with January, 1921, included 42 per cent in the woolen industry, 21.1 per cent in men's ready made clothing, 20.8 per cent in hosiery and underwear, 17 per cent in cotton manufacturing, 12.9 per cent in cotton finishing, 8.4 per cent in boots and shoes, 3.9 per cent in silk, 1.3 per cent in automobiles, 3 per cent in iron and steel, and 2 per cent in leather.

PUBLIC OPINION DIVIDES SHARPLY ON SALES TAXES

Offer Chief Snag in U. S.
Revenue Revision.

ARTICLE NO. 12.
(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., March 18.—(Special.)—The most heated controversy during the revision of revenue laws will center around the proposed sales tax.

Just at present the prospect is that the sales tax will be rejected both by the house ways and means committee and by the house. There is a possibility, however, that a sales tax may be added in the senate.

Organized labor and farm organizations will fight the movement for a sales tax as an effort by banking interests and big business to pass the tax burden to the consumer.

The Principal Proposals.
The chief forms of sales tax as proposed are the gross sales or turnover tax, which would apply on all turn-overs from raw material to finished product, and the final retail sales tax. There also are suggestions for a limited turnover tax, to apply on all turn-overs from raw material to finished product, and the final retail sales tax. There also are suggestions for a limited turnover tax.

The new administration has given no indication as to whether it favors a sales tax and Dr. Thomas S. Adams, chairman of the advisory tax board of the treasury, is opposed to a "new sales tax."

Dr. Adams has no objection to the continuance of present special consumption or sales taxes, now yielding 21 per cent of the total internal taxes. He even holds the consumption taxes might produce 25 or 30 per cent. Increased. He is against a general sales tax designed to substitute indirect taxes falling on the consumer for the present income tax.

Calls Collection Easy.
Advocates of a sales tax do not admit that it would be difficult to administer. Julius S. Baer, New York banker, actively urging a sales tax, insists it will be much more easily collectible than the present tax.

Sales taxes are in operation in a number of countries including France, Canada, the Philippines, Mexico, and Germany.

There is a difference of opinion as to whether the sales tax is operating satisfactorily in France. The French law, according to information obtained by the National Retail Grocers' association, is very intricate and especially burdensome for the small grocer. The receipts from the French tax have been much less than anticipated.

Example Set by Others.
The sales taxes adopted by other countries have been either turnover taxes or limited turnover taxes. The Philippines tax is a turnover tax and those in Mexico and Germany also are of this variety. Canada and France have limited turnover taxes. In Canada the sales tax is applicable on sales by manufacturers, wholesalers, jobbers, or on importations, on any and all goods not especially exempted. It does not apply to retailers.

Representative Fear of Wisconsin, one of the most active opponents of a sales tax, declares the only turnover sales tax laws in governments of comparative importance are found in Mexico and Germany, "where the iron hand of revolution has turned over governments and ruthlessly imposed turnover taxes as one of the chief fruits of revolution." He says that the experience of Canada and France has been disappointing and irritating in administration and revenue, and that conditions in the Philippines are not at all like those in this country and that a tax which might work there would not necessarily do so in the United States.

Business Men Divided.
The various business organizations are by no means a unit on the proposition of a sales tax. Some favor it; others oppose it. The committee on taxation of the chamber of commerce of the United States made a recommendation adverse to a sales tax.

The vote of the member organizations of the chamber in the general referendum on taxation was 704 to 855 against the sales tax. Member organizations in expressing their preference for different forms of sales taxes on the assumption that some sort of sales tax might be adopted divided, 511 for a general turnover tax, 150 for a limited turnover tax, and 541 for a retail sales tax.

The National Retail Dry Goods association favors a turnover tax on gross sales of all goods, wares, and merchan-

TOO MANY FINE FEATHERS

It was her undue fondness for expensive apparel that caused the arrest of Mrs. Myrtle Le Mack and two other women yesterday as suspects in the $1,000,000 mail robbery at Toledo. The women were traced through purchases made by Mrs. Le Mack at Chicago department stores. In the picture above, the figures are (from left to right): Mrs. Eva Welch, under arrest in Toledo; Henry Welch, her husband, who eluded the authorities in the roundup, and Mrs. Le Mack, taken in custody here.

This organization suggested a 1 per cent tax, but thinks that a tax of one-half of 1 per cent might be sufficient. The National Retail Grocers' association, on the other hand, is strongly opposed to a gross sales or turnover tax on the ground that in a buyers' market when the tax would have to be absorbed by the grocer it might prove disastrous.

Salesmen for Turnover Tax.
The National Council of Traveling Salesmen's association favors a 1 per cent turnover tax, but the National Association of Credit Men is against any kind of sales or turnover tax. The National Automobile Chamber of Commerce favors a retail sales tax if necessary for additional revenue, but prefers to do without it.

Senator Smoot of Utah, one of the leading Republican members of the senate finance committee, favors a turnover tax.

HARDING ASKS EX-LABOR HEAD TO YIELD POST

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(Special.)—President Harding has asked William B. Wilson for his resignation from the international joint commission. The former secretary of labor forwarded his resignation to the White House today.

Mr. Wilson was appointed by former President Wilson to the commission, which has to do with questions pertaining to the boundary waters between the United States and Canada, a few days before March 4, after Joseph P. Tumulty, the former president's secretary, had declined to accept the post. In order to create a vacancy on the commission, President Wilson had requested the resignation of Obadiah Gardner of Maine, a Democrat. President Harding, it is declared, intends to reappoint Mr. Gardner in order that he may proceed with the boundary questions he had under consideration at the time of his removal and also to resume with the St. Lawrence waterway project, which was threatened by Gardner's ouster.

WAR HERO DEAD, WIFE AND YOUNG SON DESTITUTE

Sgt. A. W. Dyke, winner of five medals, is dead and his wife and 7-year-old son are destitute. Friends of Dyke feel that because of his brilliant record he should be given a military funeral. Mrs. Dyke would like to have him buried in Canada. Miss Gage at the Y. M. C. A. hotel will accept contributions.

Dyke's death was due to his experience overseas. He was in service in the Canadian army four years and three months. He was gassed three times and wounded twice. When war was declared by England Dyke enlisted at once. His son was born after he had gone over.

Upon his return to Canada with five medals and a sash he was unable to find work. He moved his family to Detroit, then to Chicago, but he could not find employment.

3 WOMEN TAKEN HERE IN MILLION MAIL ROBBERY

Toledo Suspects' Love of Fine Clothes Lands 'Em.

Three women, two in Chicago and one in Toledo, were placed under arrest by state and federal authorities yesterday in connection with the million dollar robbery of the Toledo post office on Feb. 17. Two men also wanted by the Toledo authorities escaped when operatives under Detective Sergeant Anthony Gentile made the raids. The women were first taken in custody last Tuesday night and questioned. Secrecy was maintained concerning the arrests. Application for a writ of habeas corpus yesterday made the investigation public.

These Women Arrested.
The women arrested are Mrs. Myrtle Le Mack, 1935 West Madison street; Miss Margaret Munroe, a companion, and Mrs. Eva Welch, another alleged accomplice. Mrs. Le Mack and Miss Munroe were taken in custody at the West Madison street address. Mrs. Welch was arrested in Toledo.

Mrs. Le Mack is the wife of Harry Le Mack, said to be a leader of the gang of five men who held up a mail wagon in Toledo and escaped with at least $780,000 in bonds and currency. Lavish spending of money for clothing and booze led to the arrests. Sgt. Gentile was notified on Tuesday that a "million dollars" crook was at large in Chicago. He was told that the man was living at 1935 West Madison street.

Detectives sent to search the apartment found it empty. A chicken, smoking hat, was on the table. Coffee was boiling and preparations had been made for supper. A few minutes after their arrival Mrs. Le Mack and Miss Munroe entered and were arrested. William Hill, Mrs. Le Mack's brother, living at 1705 Park avenue, was also taken in custody. His wife was later taken to the office of Chief Investigator Newmark of the state's attorney's staff. Le Mack was notified on Tuesday that a "million dollars" crook was at large in Chicago. He was told that the man was living at 1935 West Madison street.

Investigation by Sgt. William McCarthy revealed that the Le Macks had arrived in Chicago shortly after the Toledo robbery had been committed. They at first registered at the Morrison hotel and later at the Lakota hotel. A few days ago they moved to their apartment.

Miss Margaret Munroe, Mrs. Le Mack's companion in a West Madison street apartment, arrested by the Chicago police, and Henry Welch.

MINERS TO FIGHT ANY EFFORT TO REDUCE WAGE

Indianapolis, Ind., March 18.—Any attempt to reduce the wages of coal miners will be resisted by the United Mine Workers of America with the full force of that organization. John L. Lewis, international president, said in a statement made public today.

The statement was in connection with the action of the international board now in session in this city in regard to the situation in the state of Washington.

Operators of commercial coal mines in that state, it was said, closed their mines last Wednesday because the mine workers refused to accept a reduction.

UNIONS SEEK TO PROVE MINORITY RULES RAILROADS

Say Majority Favored National Labor Boards.

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

Railroad unions yesterday excavated into the minutes of the Association of Railway Executives, with a view of showing that a year ago a majority of the carriers were for the national adjustment boards proposed by the unions, but later were swung the other way by Gen. W. W. Atterbury of the Pennsylvania and one or two others.

T. DeWitt Cuyler, chairman of the association, went on the stand after his assistant, Robert S. Binkard, had produced full documentary records of the association.

From Mr. Cuyler the union representatives drew the statement that C. R. Gray, president of the Union Pacific, withdrew as chairman of the labor committee of the association last April because a majority report he had submitted favoring the idea of national adjustment boards was rejected. Mr. Cuyler then appointed Gen. W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania, who had brought in a minority report recommending local adjustment boards, a policy which found favor with the association.

Claims Minority Role.

On this the unions have their claim that the labor policy of the carriers is dominated by a minority.

"But," said Mr. Cuyler, "the adoption of the minority report was after full discussion, and as a result of this discussion many members of the labor committee changed their views."

Nightfall thus found the controversy still skating around the old issue of whether labor negotiations should be national in scope or local; whether there should be national uniformity and rigidity of working rules, or whether each road, as an individual, should have the right to negotiate with its own employees. It is the old issue of "centralization versus decentralization."

Issue Remains Same.

What the unions managed to show by the records was that originally there was disagreement among the carriers over the question of national adjustment boards as proposed by the unions. As yet they have not developed any indication that the roads were divided in their opposition to national working agreements. They say they expect to deal with that point today, and they argue that the executives, who a year ago favored national adjustment boards by inference, were for national working agreements. National negotiations or local negotiations—that is still the nub of the developments.

Not Railroad Man.

Under questioning Mr. Cuyler said he was not a practical railroad man. The documents to which the day was mainly devoted had the following chronological sequence:

March 23, 1920. A majority report of the labor committee recommends national adjustment boards to dispose of grievances, rules or working conditions—wages are not involved.

April 3, 1920—Gen. Atterbury submits minority report, for local adjustment and decentralization.

April 10—The association by vote of 80 to 41 favors the Atterbury report. Mr. Gray resigns and is succeeded by Gen. Atterbury as head of the labor committee.

CABINET MEETS TO TALK FARMER TARIFF RELIEF

Harding Wants Emergency Measure.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—President Harding will throw his influence and that of the entire administration behind some emergency measure for the protection of agriculture.

Acute conditions caused by an increasing flood of imports of wool, frozen mutton and beef, dairy, and other agricultural products were the chief subject of consideration at a meeting of the cabinet with the president today.

That the administration is determined to take some steps to relieve the situation was stated officially.

Chief discussion centered about the proposal advanced by the wool growers and western senators and representatives for an embargo on all imports of wool and other commodities.

Whether an embargo should be approved or the tariff revision program adjusted to bring early relief was not decided.

Hesitates to Impose Embargo.

It was made known that President Harding has expressed regret over the failure of the emergency agricultural tariff bill passed at the recent session of congress but vetoed by President Wilson.

President Harding has been informed that he has authority to impose an embargo on imports under war powers given by the trading with the enemy act. He does not wish to resort to the use of war powers, however, except as a last resort.

Objections were advanced in the cabinet meeting to legislation establishing an embargo. It is the understanding that Secretary of Commerce Hoover and others fear that an embargo through the disarrangement of normal shipping activities and in other ways, would bring on difficulties. Possibility that congress will refuse to enact an embargo legislation was suggested.

Forney Makes Suggestion.

Representative Forney today reiterated his opposition to an embargo bill. Representative Green of Iowa, the ranking Republican on the committee, also expressed himself against the plan.

Representative Forney offered for emergency relief for agriculture a proposal to adopt a joint resolution declaring to be in effect the increased rates of duty provided in the permanent tariff bill to be reported from the house ways and means committee. These increased rates would provide protection not only for agricultural products but for all commodities covered and would remain in effect pending final enactment of the tariff law.

MAN WHO KILLED FOUR SLAIN BY HIS GIRL WARD

Stuttgart, Ark., March 18.—Mrs. Aigie Marks Smith, aged 28, daughter of a former business partner of John McVey and former ward of the latter, shot and killed McVey at the home of her mother here tonight.

Mrs. Smith shot McVey twice as he ran from the house. McVey fell dead on the front porch. Mrs. Smith was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Rex Polard. In a statement to the officer she gave her motive for shooting McVey, but the officer declined to make public the statement.

McVey, who was the son of a minister, began his career at Monticello several years ago when in a feud he killed three men. Later he killed a man on a train at Pine Bluff and was sentenced to death. His sentence was commuted to life imprisonment, and from the penitentiary, on a plea of insanity, McVey was taken to a state hospital. Later he was pardoned.

DELA CAMPION DEATH PROBE.

The inquiry into the death of Fire Captain Frank J. Campion, son of the late fire chief, was again continued today at March 25, pending the return to Chicago of several witnesses who saw Capt. Campion in an automobile accident at Austin and Grand avenues.

Babcock, and Richard Stone.

ILLINOIS WILL LAY OWN ROADS, GOVERNOR SAYS

Thinks That Will Reduce Bids.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Springfield, Ill., March 18.—[Special.]—Gov. Small proposes to put the state of Illinois immediately into the road construction business. That is his ultimatum to contractors who have been presenting bids that were thrown out as too high.

The department of public works has purchased two complete sets of road building machinery worth $25,000. Gov. Small said today within two weeks the state's gangs of men will be at work. They will start at Joliet, working on the state system that is included within the $60,000,000 bond issue.

The first stretches will be on the Chicago-St. Louis highway that parallels the Chicago and Alton railroad and the Joliet end of the route to Springfield that runs via Ottawa and Peoria.

Gov. Small favors the Holiday bill, now in the house, permitting counties to become bidders for state road work. It is expected this bill will be in force within three weeks. Then Vermilion county, which has its machinery, and other counties that want to start can start work before the spring has passed.

The state administration also is to offer a bill early next week that will

Get in Line

RECRUITING for the United States Marine Corps, which was halted early in the year, has been resumed in Chicago in accordance with orders from Maj. Gen. John A. Lejeune, commandant of the corps. The order informs the recruiting officers that 500 men a month must be enlisted and Chicago is expected to furnish a large portion of this number.

Maj. A. B. Miller is in command of the recruiting in the Chicago district. He is handicapped by the fact that the store, formerly used as a recruiting headquarters, has been rented, but he has established a new headquarters in room 200, 537 South Dearborn street.

Several complaints of tenants, who accuse janitors of attempting to "shake them down," and otherwise employing unfair tactics, have been sent to Dudley Taylor, president of the Employers' association. He admitted yesterday he planned to turn these over to Mr. Crowe.

Tenants Accuse Janitors.

Several complaints of tenants, who accuse janitors of attempting to "shake them down," and otherwise employing unfair tactics, have been sent to Dudley Taylor, president of the Employers' association. He admitted yesterday he planned to turn these over to Mr. Crowe.

It is entirely within the range of possibility that we can let contracts within a comparatively short time so the bulk of the original program for 1921 can be completed before winter, was the forecast by one of the state officials.

Joliet was picked as the starting place for the state's undertaking, Gov. Small explained, because of its proximity to beds of roadmaking material. It seems probable the general assembly will agree without argument to the governor's road propositions.

JANITOR UNION OFFICES RAIDED BY CROWE'S MEN

Seven Men and Records Are Seized.

Investigation of the Flat Janitors' union was begun yesterday by State's Attorney Crowe.

A raid was made on the organization's headquarters at 166 West Wabash street, and seven men and a quantity of records were seized. The men were released after questioning.

Ben Newmark, chief investigator for the state's attorney, refused to discuss the raid, but charges of bomb throwing and "shakedown" were said to have induced Mr. Crowe to act.

Quesse Not in Office.

President William Quesse of the Janitors' union was not present when the raiders arrived. Three of those taken to the Criminal courts building, Jack Sullivan, Claude Peters, and Robert Osterberg, were questioned only a few minutes.

"I have no idea why we were taken to the building," said Mr. Sullivan. "We are all completely at a loss at the state's attorney's action. They gave us no reason, simply came over and took the stuff."

ANTI-RED CHIEF TELLS RISE AND FALL OF REVOLT

Soviets Battled Way to Kronstadt Fort.

BULLETIN.

LONDON, March 18.—M. Bjersjinsky, head of the All-Russian extraordinary commission, has personally arrested Gen. Sergius Kameneff, commander in chief of the bolshevik armies, and Col. Lebedieff, his chief of staff, at Moscow, according to a London Times dispatch from Riga.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Gen. Koslovsky, leader of the Russian revolutionaries, who were forced to evacuate Kronstadt on the repeated assaults of the bolsheviks, gave an account of the rising today.

On March 2, he declared, the Kronstadt authorities did not recognize the soviet government. The soviet commissars and leaders of the fleet were arrested and a committee of sailors and workmen elected. Former officers offered their services, and on March 3 a Kronstadt soviet was formed.

The military members proposed an attack on Oranienbaum, on the Gulf of Finland, opposite Kronstadt, but the provisional committee refused and the garrison began the defense of the fortress. The hostile attacks became fiercer and fiercer daily. Gen. Koslovsky said, and yesterday the garrison, unable to repulse them longer, was forced to retire.

Fugitives Reach Finland. Throughout the night fugitives from Kronstadt have been arriving on the Finnish frontier, and the roads leading to Terolki are crowded with refugees, some of them afoot, walking in close ranks, and others on sledges carrying their own provisions. A small number of the refugees have been quarantined and the remainder placed in concentration camps. Finnish frontier guards are bringing in the wounded and helpless. The American Red Cross is taking charge of supplies and has promised to help the refugees.

Moscow Confirms Capture. LONDON, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Russian soviet government, in confirming by wireless today the capture of Kronstadt by bolshevik troops, says M. Kusmin, soviet commissar of the Baltic fleet, and M. Vasiloff, chairman of the Kronstadt soviet, who were arrested at the beginning of the rising, were released by the bolsheviks on their entry into Kronstadt.

M. Kusmin participated in the final liquidation of the rising, the wireless adds.

Anti Reds Take Two Towns. BERN, Switzerland, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The capture from the bolsheviks of Mohilev and Jampol, on the Dniester river, by Ukrainian nationalist forces, was announced by the Ukrainian mission here today. The Ukrainians shot all the bolshevik commissars and officers, the mission declared.

Wrangel Appeals to U. S. CONSTANTINOPLE, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Gen. Baron Wrangel, former anti-bolshevik leader on the Crimean front, is appealing to the governments of the United States and other countries to furnish money so that his army, which he declares to be the only trained anti-bolshevik force remaining, need not be disbanded.

CHICAGO POLES TO CELEBRATE.

Chicago Poles yesterday began to plan for a celebration of the unanimous adoption by the Polish diet of the new constitution of the new Polish republic. Leaders of the various Polish organizations and editors of the Polish newspapers expressed satisfaction at the news of the adoption of the constitution, and wired their congratulations to Chief of State Joseph Pilsudski, and to other Polish statesmen and members of the diet.

New Anti-Red Triangle

PARIS, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—An entente for common defense has been reached between Poland, Rumania, and Czechoslovakia, it was learned in diplomatic circles here today. Through the good offices of Rumania a better understanding has been brought about between Czechoslovakia and Poland, facilitating the tripartite agreement, which has principally in view defense of the three countries against eventual attacks by the bolsheviks.

This arrangement is understood to supersede the plan by which Hungary was to join Poland, Rumania, and Czechoslovakia and bring to the new entente a large element of strength in that it facilitates the manufacture of arms and munitions in the great Skoda works in Czechoslovakia.

108TH ENGINEERS PLAN TO RECEIVE HEROES' BODIES

It was the black day of the war, Aug. 8, 1918. "F" company of the 108th engineers had been given the job of building a cavalry track over newly captured German trenches. A division of Canadian cavalry was to go over.

As the engineers started to work the Germans commenced a counter barrage. Clarence Ross, who lived at 1861 Lincoln avenue, and Emmett Casey of Oak Park were killed. A score of engineers were injured.

Word was received yesterday by P. N. C. Beckford, 6174 University, that the body of Private Stephen Beckford will arrive in New York this morning.

A special meeting of all the men and officers of "F" company was held last night at the Engineers' club rooms, 234 South Wabash avenue, to arrange for a suitable reception when the two bodies arrive in Chicago.

Word was received yesterday by P. N. C. Beckford, 6174 University, that the body of Private Stephen Beckford will arrive in New York this morning.

Drive at First Infantry to Fill Three Companies

The 1st Infantry, Illinois National Guard, will hold a recruiting drive in the armory at Sixteenth street and Michigan avenue, next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights to bring three companies up to the required quotas to be federalized. Capt. George O. Fairweather announced the drive would include stag parties with musical entertainment, athletics, and suppers.

BRITISH BLAME IRISH ATTACKS ON THREE M. P.'S

Urge Civilians to Aid in Stopping Them.

DUBLIN, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—An official statement issued from Dublin castle this afternoon charges Charles Burgess, Richard Mulcahy, and Michael Collins with responsibility for the organization and control of attacks on forces of the crown in Dublin. The three are Sinn Fein members of the British parliament and thus far have succeeded in evading arrest.

Attention is called to the economic loss due to imposition of the curfew order necessitated by the attacks, which it declares are only "slightly successful."

Since Jan. 1, according to the castle announcement, there have been fifty attacks in Dublin, in which one soldier was killed and twelve soldiers were wounded; four policemen killed and eight wounded, and seven civilians, including women and children, killed and forty wounded.

Urged to Stop Attacks. It is suggested that citizens take the opportunity to influence their elected representatives to cause Burgess, Mulcahy, and Collins to cease their attacks.

Throughout Ireland, during the week ending March 14, the statement says, seven policemen were killed and ten wounded, eight members of the military forces were wounded and seven civilians suspected of giving information to the police murdered. These figures do not include the mayor and former mayor of Limerick, whose death at the hands of assassins is being investigated.

There have been 333 internments. The house of Mrs. J. W. Lindsay, near Macroom, was burned today. It is supposed this was done by Sinn Feiners who suspected that she gave information to the police.

DESTROY BILLBOARDS

BY JOHN LESTER. (Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.) (Copyright 1921 By The Chicago Tribune.)

DUBLIN, March 18.—The military forces destroyed several wooden advertising boards in Dublin today which might have been used as a cover for assassins.

Two men arrested for being out of doors three minutes after curfew were being conveyed to prison when they fell off the lorry and were run over by an armored car. One was killed and the other had his legs broken and was taken to a hospital.

Farranfere barracks, County Kerry, was attacked today, but the attackers were beaten off after several hours' fighting.

BANISHER DEAD-END JETS OPEN. John Nelson, 45-year-old, 1145 Avenue street, a barkeeper, was found suffocated in his home yesterday. He had recently been arrested for law violations. Gas jets were turned on in the bedroom, the bathroom and the kitchen.

GUNMEN RENEW 19TH WARD FEUD; ONE MAN IS SHOT

Two Bandit Cars Patrol
Vendetta District.

Political feud warfare was resumed yesterday in the Nineteenth ward. Two autos loaded with armed men toured the ward, creating a reign of terror.

The gang in one of the autos seeped a crowd gathered in front of a poolroom with bullets from a sawed off shotgun, wounding one man slightly. Again, teamsters from a grocery house who blocked the way of one of the "death autos" were threatened.

GIUSEPPE NUZZO, were threatened. (TRIBUNE Photo.) and later weapons were turned against an inquisitive crowd gathered around a stalled auto.

Adherents of Anthony D'Andrea, defeated aldermanic candidate in the ward, seemed to be the targets of the invaders. The police suspect the gunmen were friends of Paul Labriola, slain recently, supposedly by lieutenants of D'Andrea.

Double Ward's Police Guard.
Police guards were doubled in the ward last night, when it became apparent that a war of vengeance had just started.

It is thought "Two Gun Johnny" Gardino, a D'Andrea lieutenant, mentioned in connection with the other affairs in the ward, was the target of the gunmen who fired into the crowd inside and about the front of a poolroom at 934 West Polk street. This poolroom is owned by Giuseppe Nuzzo, who resides at 947 West Polk street, where Gardino also lives.

Gardino's auto was in front of the poolroom. Gardino, Nuzzo, and fifteen or twenty others were standing in front of the place when an auto containing four men approached at high speed from the west. As it passed the poolroom four shots were fired directly into the group in front of the door.

Nuzzo Shot Four Times.
Nuzzo was the only victim. He received three shots in the hand and one in the hip. The bullets were fired from a sawed off shotgun.

Speeding east in Polk street, the car reached the corner of Halsted street to find the way blocked. One grocery truck had broken down. Another from the same house was unloading the groceries in the disabled vehicle.

"Get out of the way if you don't want your heads blown off," shouted the men in the auto. The men in the second truck did not dispute the order. In a minute the grocery car had disappeared east in Polk street.

Gardino took Nuzzo to Jefferson Park hospital and then disappeared.

PEPPY POLITICS

Hostilities broke out anew yesterday in the political feud in the Nineteenth ward. Four men in an auto sped past the poolroom of Giuseppe Nuzzo, at 934 West Polk street, and fired a fusillade from a sawed off shotgun at a number of men gathered in front of the place. Nuzzo, wounded four times, refused to talk of the affair.

When his wounds were dressed the police sent for Nuzzo, but he disclaimed all knowledge of the shooting. From other sources the police learned Gardino had been in the group in front of Nuzzo's store, and was the probable target of the gunmen.

Second Attack on Gardino.
This is the second attempt on Gardino's life. On Feb. 6 he was shot down in the doorway of the house he shares with Nuzzo. He was wounded in the face, chest, and arm, but recovered in time to take a leading part in the political fight between D'Andrea and Ald. John Powers. He was one of the D'Andrea lieutenants first sought in connection with the various shooting affairs in the ward.

While looking for the gang that shot at Gardino, the police found another car in which gunmen had raided the ward. This car had been stolen at 2:10 o'clock in the afternoon from W. J. P. Boettcher, who owns a pattern shop at 440 North Peoria street. Six men had toured the ward in it, but the car became stalled at Sixteenth and Morgan streets. While they were trying to fix it a curious crowd gathered.

Guns Drive Back Crowd.
Finally the six men drew guns and drove back the crowd. Then they made another attempt to repair the car, but abandoned it and fled on foot.

The car used by the other gunmen was also stolen. Its license had been issued to A. J. Ryan of 1419 Archer avenue.

Gas Company Must Return Money for Poor Service.
San Francisco, Cal., March 18.—The Contra Costa Gas company was ordered by the state railroad commission today to return 10 per cent of its August and September, 1920, bills, because, in the opinion of the commission, poor service complaints against it had been sustained.

EXOTIC LOVE CODE BLAMED FOR TWO WRECKED HOMES

T. J. Chron Names Friend and Gets Divorce.

The individualistic philosophy and "free love" doctrines practiced by Charles N. Curry, a bond broker, which were described in the testimony of his wife in her divorce suit five years ago, broke up another home yesterday.

Judge Joseph "Sabath" granted a divorce to Thomas J. Chron, president of the Old Glory Manufacturing company, after the husband told of a confession made by his wife and Curry.

"Curry had been my friend for eleven years," he said. "He lived with us at 5131 Greenwood avenue and I had perfect confidence in him."

Tells of Double Confession.
"One day, however, he and my wife came to me with a confession. I listened in amazement to what they had to say. Then I ordered them from my house."

It was this relation, alleged to have existed between Curry and Mrs. Chron, which resulted in Mrs. Kitty Curry obtaining a divorce four years ago.

She accused her husband of imbibing "free love" doctrines from a study of philosophy and practicing them. Mrs. Chron was named.

Charges Suits Is Frameup.
In the Chron divorce hearing Curry charged the suit was a "frameup" to lay the foundation for an alienation of affections suit against him.

"That is a lie," said Chron. "He thinks this thing, which he calls a plot, was laid in the home of Mrs. Katherine Spatz at 4119 Ellis avenue."

Mrs. Spatz called me to her home once and told me that my wife had confided to her that she received money from Curry."

Mrs. Spatz, on the stand, substantiated Chron's statement and denied the conspiracy charge.

Mrs. M. M. Gibson, former owner of the Gibson Art galleries, testified for Chron, relating numerous occasions on which, she said, Mrs. Chron had confided that she loved Curry.

DEATH IN BONFIRE AN ACCIDENT.
Norman Phillips, 5, of 3518 Blackstone avenue, who was burned fatally at a bonfire near his home, died an accidental death, according to the verdict yesterday of a coroner's jury.

Judge, 12, Gets Tips on Job

Court officials elected by pupils of the Nineteenth ward schools to sit in judgment upon those who play hooky and commit other offenses visited Judge Williams' court yesterday to learn the tricks of their trade. The picture shows them in the midst of the lesson. Left to right—Judge Frank Laino, 12; Clerk Joe Muscato; Prosecuting Attorney Willie Palermo; Bailiff Joe De Marco, and Judge Williams.

HENCEFORTH the word of Judge Frank Laino, 12 years old, of 629 Miller street, will be law among the school kids of the Nineteenth ward. Frank is head of a tribunal that will try all cases of truancy and lawlessness in the eight schools of the ward. His assistants, all pupils in the Dore school at 758 West Harrison street, are Prosecuting Attorney Willie Palermo, 14 years old, of 910 South Loomis street; Bailiff Joe De Marco, 12 years old, of 1425 Eburn avenue, and Clerk Joe Muscato, 15 years old, of 815 Garibaldi place. They were elected by their schoolmates.

Judge Laino and his assistants received their first lesson in court conduct from Judge Charles A. Williams yesterday. They occupied seats of honor in his court. Frank's face was grave as two boys accused of stealing were held for further hearing.

"I wouldn't let 'em off that easy," he said.

"What punishment will you mete out?" asked Judge Williams.

"Well, first I'll give 'em a chance and appoint a lawyer to defend 'em," Frank replied. "If they want a jury trial, they'll get it. But if they're guilty they've got to make good. If not."

U. S. MAY REPAY LARGE SUMS TO MANY ESTATES

Court Ruling Cuts Down Income Tax.

Washington, D. C., March 18.—The federal government today lost an important income tax suit. The United States Court of Claims held every estate, the net amount of which exceeds $50,000, and which has been, or is hereafter compelled to pay the federal estate tax, is entitled to deduct that amount from its income tax.

The effect, should the decision be sustained, will be that the government not only will be compelled to refund all taxes already collected from such estates but will be unable to collect similar amounts in future.

The government will appeal.

Senator Party to Suit.

The court awarded a judgment for $165,075 in favor of Senator Underwood of Alabama, Alan H. Woodward, and Reginald Barrister, as executors of Joseph H. Woodward, in a suit to reverse the action of the commissioner of internal revenue in refusing to allow deduction from taxable income $489,834 paid as a federal estate tax.

The decision was based on section 314 of the revenue act of 1918, which provides that "in computing the net income there shall be allowed as deductions taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year imposed by the authority of the United States, except income, war profits, and excess profits taxes."

What Commissioner Held.

The construction of the commissioner of internal revenue was that the amount paid under the estate tax law was not a tax which could be deducted, but "a toll taken from the property transferred."

Judge Downey, in discussing the commissioner's ruling, said:

"We are, in effect, asked to construe the statute so as to nullify one of its plain provisions. We do not feel that we are justified in adding another exception to those provided for in the statute.

"If congress intended that the estate tax should not be deducted in determining the net income it would have said so."

GLAD SHE'S FREE, ARDMORE SAYS OF CLARA HAMON

Woman Thanks Its People —To Be Neighbor.

Ardmore, Okla., March 18.—The acquittal of Clara Smith Hamon yesterday of the alleged murder of Jake L. Hamon was in line with general predictions here.

"Clara Hamon would have been convicted in any place in the civilized world outside of Carter county," H. H. Brown, one of the counsel who prosecuted her, asserted today.

In the course of the trial the jurors heard the shouts of approval when her counsel scored a point. That not only was the sentiment in the courtroom but in the streets.

Will Remain in Ardmore.
It is with that state of public sentiment in mind that Clara Hamon today declared she intends to continue to live in Ardmore.

"May I not on this day, which I cherish as the beginning of a new era in my life," she said in a written statement, "express my sincere appreciation and profound gratitude, first to the officers of Carter county for their consideration and courtesy shown me during the trial, and second, to the thousands who have sustained me by their sincere expressions of sympathy which are securely kept in a grateful heart."

With all the trust I had in their goodness, I surely felt that no ill could befall me. For the twelve of my peers into whose hands my fate was entrusted I have infinite love and respect.

"There is no place like home, and for me there will be no home like Ardmore. It shall be my ambition to so live among you that I may, in a measure, merit a continuance of your expressions of kindness and sympathy, and, above all, your lasting respect."

Against Movie Publicity.
Los Angeles, Cal., March 18.—[United Press.]—Exploitation of the Clara Smith Hamon case on the screen will be met with organized opposition from the motion picture industry itself, according to action taken today by the Photo Playwrights' League of America, a national association of film writers. That organization adopted a resolution declaring that she should not be featured on the screen at this time.

BANK OF KINDNESS

Draw a Check on It for the Unfortunate.

BY REV. G. A. MACWHORTER.
When misfortune came to Chicago Junior Home and Farm school in October, 1919, in the fire that destroyed its dormitory at Royalton Heights, just out of St. Joseph, Mich., a friend came to the rescue and provided a temporary domicile for the orphans. The new home consisted of a residence and a barn which were made over into dormitories for boys. That "friend in need" was Mrs. Mary A. Hannah, vice president of the school.

The boys will be glad to move back to their farm when the new dormitories are completed. Then girls will be given a chance to enjoy country life in Michigan, for they will be given the present home. A drive for $250,000 to build, equip and maintain the Chicago Junior Home and Farm School will be launched at a dinner next Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Hotel Sherman. Harry H. Merriam, president of the Great Lakes Trust company, is the treasurer.

A benefit dance for the Logan Square social center will be held this evening in the Gold room of Hotel La Salle, under auspices of the sisterhood of the social center. Many families in the vicinity of Logan Square have been given aid by the center.

Springfield, Ill., March 18.—Recommendation that the $20,000,000 state distributive school fund asked by the Illinois State Teachers' association be cut to $10,000,000 or less was made today by W. H. H. Miller, director of the department of registration and education. He pointed out that a fund of $5,000,000 would be an increase of 100 per cent over four years ago and declared that an amount over $10,000,000 would be excessive.

MILLER ADVISES SCHOOL FUND OF $10,000,000 OR LESS

Mr. Miller also recommended that the proposed normal school appropriations be cut to make an increase of not more than 30 per cent.

With the cost of living coming down and with many teachers returning to the profession, which offers higher salaries than ever before, Mr. Miller said the school systems of the state are asking for too much.

'SLICKER' PARKS IS IDENTIFIED AS 'PRO' BALL STAR

BY FRANK SMITH.

Hopes for a third consecutive Big Ten conference baseball championship at the University of Michigan received a tremendous blow yesterday when a report from Portland, Ore., that Capt. Vernon Parks, better known as "Slicker" Parks, had played for the Portland Pacific Coast League club under the name of Harold Brooks, was verified. Parks played all last summer, and was one of the best of the best on the team, winning 90 per cent of his games.

The rumor on the coast first became rampant last August, but no one there could be found who would identify Parks and Brooks as the same man. When Parks reported at Michigan an investigation was started and the report verified, not from one source, but from several. In fact, the dual role of Parks seemed to be known by every one tested on the campus.

Photos Identified.

Then, to make sure that no injustice would be done any one, photographs of Parks and "Brooks" were shown to Phil Bartelme, athletic director at Michigan, who was in Chicago yesterday to attend the meeting of football coaches, and he immediately identified the photographs as of the same man—Parks.

With the identity of Parks as "Brooks" verified, the athletic director at Michigan, who was in Chicago yesterday to attend the meeting of football coaches, and he immediately identified the photographs as of the same man—Parks.

Michigan, we are informed, wants to keep college athletes clean. We believe this, and we want to believe it of every university in the Big Ten conference, as well as of all minor colleges. It would be well for university authorities to begin an immediate investigation to see if their athletes are living up to the letter of amateurism and not allow the exposure to come from the outside.

Big Blow to Wolverines.

This department at all times is willing to investigate charges, if they are properly signed and presented, not for the sake of the story, but to help keep college athletics clean.

The loss of Parks will be a sad blow to Michigan, but, as stated by Mr. Bartelme, the exposure is better at this time than later in the season. It will make tough sledding for Coach Derrill last year's team, which is expected to win the New York Yankees, who will make his bow as a college coach next month.

Parks' almost single handed brought the Big Ten championship to Michigan a year ago last year. He worked in the slub in three-quarters of the schedule for the Wolverines and in two seasons lost only one game, his final last season at Illinois, when he was driven from the slub. "This was the Michigan that clinched the championship."

All News to Bartelme.

When the identification of "Brooks" as Parks was put up to Mr. Bartelme he declared that it was the first time the matter had been brought to his attention or that he was aware in any way that this year's baseball captain had violated the Big Ten eligibility rules.

According to Mr. Bartelme, Parks was Ann Arbor shortly after the close of the baseball season a year ago, stating that he was to take a trip through Canada and spend part of the summer on the coast. He did not mention to the director that he intended going into "pro" baseball.

Director Bartelme declared that a thorough investigation of the Parks case will be started as soon as he returns to Ann Arbor. Such an investigation will not be necessary, he said, as Parks must relinquish the captaincy unless he cares to try to prove that he did not receive money for services given to the Portland club. Class AA leagues usually pay their players.

Sticker for Clean Sports. Mr. Bartelme always has insisted on clean college athletics. This we know. We also have it from the highest authorities that he insists on all coaches adhering strictly to conference rules. Then Carl Lundgren handled Michigan's championship team last year. He continually harped on the inadvisability of players attempting to sneak away and play professional baseball. This makes the position of Parks that much worse.

Captain Yost of the Wolverine football team was at a loss to explain how Parks was expected to "get away with" his act. "Hurry up!" declared Parks, who had written Michigan authorities stating he was through with college baseball, instead of trying to cover up on his tracks and play another year of college baseball.

The question of summer baseball has

MANDEL BROTHERS

Misses' distinctive Easter coats of quilted satin, polo cloth, veldyne

Easter coats as these are appealing to Chicago's smart set. Jaunty, youthful, made of preferred fabrics by skillful tailors, wraps of this sort are "all the go"—and values remarkable at the moderate markings.

Misses' quilted satin coats, 49.50; 59.50

But recently and exclusively introduced here—now a fashion "byword." The coats are made of ultra-fine satin in black, navy and brown. A model with tuxedo front is 59.50. The other, a stunning slim-line style, pictured, is 49.50. Fourth floor.

Polo cloth coats, $65

Smart, novel styles in three-quarter length with inverted plait in back and with belt. All are luxuriously silk-lined. See sketch.

Soft, modish wraps, $110

—of high quality veldyne and adorned with silk embroidery and tassels; in black and navy. A style de luxe. Fourth floor.

Novelty separate skirts, 18.50

---in the smarter spring styles

That "fashionables" have adopted the clever combination of sports skirt and short jacket you may readily see on the links, on motoring tours, at country clubs. A host of captivating models developed in plain or novel weaves are now here.

Novelty skirts

at 18.50

Skirt sketched is of blazer striped flannel

—in white with stripes of hunter's green, henna, scarlet or black. Very smart with jacket of velveteen or polo cloth. Fourth floor.

Women's glove silk bloomers

in a very special offer

Bloomers of soft, glove silk in various new shades for street and sports wear.

at 4.75

Three-quarter length, with handsomely shirred cuffs; closed seat; the pleasing style sketched. Decidedly special. Third floor.

voile blouses, eyelet emb'd

2.25

The attractive style sketched; embellished with dainty tucks and smartened with ston collar and cuffs of eyelet embroidered batiste. Sizes for women and misses. Third floor.

Hand made French frocks

—imported direct from Paris—smart Paris styles—in sheer cotton weaves, in delicate, flower-like color tones; the graceful lines of the frocks emphasized by the soft fabrics. The prices are notably moderate; $35, $45, $50 and $55. Fourth floor.

Ball-bearing Roller skates for boys and girls

Nickel plated roller skates, strongly constructed and fitted with good leather straps and nickel buckles. Adjustable from 8 inches to 10 1/2 inches. Fourth floor.

Women's Easter neckwear in white and cream

—an opportune sale

Vestees and gilets with roll and bustier brown collars, made of combination of net valenciennes, oriental, venise and filet laces; daintily trimmed with rows of valenciennes lace and eyelet embroidery.

at 95c

Also cuff and collar sets, roll and flat collar and vestees of organdie, lace and checked ginghams. First floor.

Net guimpes for Easter, 2.95

Of fine net finished with valenciennes lace, insertings, real Irish lace and tucks. Some with dainty patch work of filet and valenciennes, hand embroidery.

with roll, flat, bustier brown collars, square, round and "V" necks; in white and cream.

New, modish, drape veils interestingly priced

Square and long veils with embroidered borders, worn either draped about the hat to hang loosely or tightened under the chin to flare freely behind.

at 95c

In assorted meshes, in black, brown, navy, and popular combinations.

Imported mesh veilings, 1.75 —very exceptional values

—in hexagon, filet, hair-line and Russian meshes; chenille and velvet dots, fancy scroll effects, including wide range of French dots; in black, brown, navy, taupe, color combinations. Unusually low at 1.75 yd. First floor.

—Stunning accessories of Easter costumes—

Novel fiber silk sashes in Roman stripes

Handsome fringed-end sashes in exquisite color combinations are notably special

at 3.50

Other sashes of wide ribbon in brocade, faille, satin, Dresden weaves, new colors, up to 19.50.

Organdie flowers, 65c to 4.50

Dainty, bright-colored blossoms, in boutonniere and corsage bouquets, are "true able" on Easter suit or fur. First floor.

Men's 14-k. solid gold jewelry at less than half

Here is exquisite jewelry that will "win" most men's admiration—at substantial savings:

14-karat extra heavy gold cuff links

at 7.85

—for soft cuffs; some are in enamel, others white and green gold, engine turned or brocade designed.

14-kt. gold Walde-

mar chain at 7.85

In plain curb or long link, green or English gold, white and green gold.

Men's solid gold

pocketknives, 3.45

Plain or engraved; assorted sizes; fine steel blades.

Men's, boys' belts, sterling buckle, 3.95

Extra weight sterling buckle inlaid with 14 kt. gold; with cowhide belt. First floor.

Women's Easter frocks and suits interpreting late style themes

Correctly, gracefully, distinctively fashioned, these frocks and suits express the latest in smart attire for Easter and spring—and are very moderately priced indeed.

at 49.50

The suits pictured, fashioned of navy tricotine, vividly portray the winsomeness of youthful, slenderizing lines. Elaborate silk embroidery adds further charm. The frock sketched is developed in ultra fashionable eyelet-embroidered taffeta, and is one of many late models equally charming. Fourth floor.

A decidedly special offer of Men's and women's linen h'dk'fs —"seconds" at half "regular" prices

Because of slight imperfections, these hemstitched handkerchiefs of sheer and heavy linen are priced 'way below "firsts." Nearly all are in regular sizes; there are a few extra sizes. First floor.

Lot 1---6,300 men's linen handkerchiefs

at 35c

Excellent handkerchiefs at savings that approximate 50 per cent.

Lot 2---8,400 women's linen handkerchiefs

at 15c

Dainty handkerchiefs to delight milady; one-half regular price.

Manicuring now 60c

This reduced figure will be continued until further notice. Hair dressing parlors, fifth floor.

Houbigant's and Guerlain's French perfumes and powders

at decidedly lower prices

—toiletwares of rare, delightful aroma—for every costume, every occasion—at savings worth your interest. All are in original packages, as imported from France. Of Houbigant's there are:

Ideal perfume, 2 1/2-oz.

at 7.25

Ideal toilet water, 17 oz., large size, 12.50. Ideal face powder, in new lacquer box, all colors, $3.

HINKY DINK MUST MOVE; 'THE BATH' RHYMES HIS GRIEF

'Hangout for Boys' to Die in High Rent Wave.

For the first time in his business career of forty years, Ald. Michael Kenna is forced to move. He has moved before, but always of his own volition. He wished to renew his lease on the premises where he has his office at 107 South Clark street, and then sent word to the alderman that the new tenant would take possession May 1.

"I would have remained," said the alderman, "if I had been given the opportunity of renewing the lease. There was a sort of verbal agreement regarding the renewal, but I suppose the landlord took it for granted that I wouldn't stand a chance of 100 per cent. I'm paying $500 a month and the new tenant, I understand, is going to pay $1,000. I probably would have stood for a reasonable increase, but not for the boost to a grand. I've been here ten years and about forty years in the neighborhood."

Hangout for the Boys.
"Since prohibition went into effect—or rather since July 1, 1919—I have been losing money every day. But I had to have a hangout for the boys, and I was willing to stand the loss. I am going to open a little cigar store, but just where I haven't yet decided. I'll find some place not far away."

"A restaurant is coming in here. I made some inquiry and discovered that $1,000 a month is not a big rental for loop restaurants. Maybe the high rent has got something to do with the prices they charge for a sandwich. I have been reading those articles in THE TRIBUNE."

At this juncture Ald. Coughlin entered the upstairs office at Kenna's place, where the latter was talking with the reporter.

"Is that right, Mike? Have you got to get out?" asked the Bathhouse.

"What's the trouble? Does the landlord want more kale?"

Bath Breaks Into Verse.

"No," answered Kenna. "I wasn't asked anything about it. They went ahead and rented the joint and then handed me my hat."

"O, I see," said the councilman, "dashing off the following:
"Now is the winter of our discontent;
Not even, forsooth, given a chance to rent."

"You should have taken my advice," said the laureate, "and opened a drug store. You and I could have done up $50,000 or $100,000 since prohibition went into effect."

"Yes," said Kenna, "and maybe we'd be explaining it to Judge Landis. I want home before I call the police and have you tossed out."

MARQUIS EATON DECORATED BY KING OF ITALY

Attorney Marquis Eaton, who during the war organized a relief fund for the wives and children of Italian soldiers, was decorated yesterday by the King of Italy. He also was presented with the Commendatory Cross of Italy. He was presented with a citation signed by the King of Italy.

The presentation was made by Salvatore Merandino, a representative of the Italian consul here, in Mr. Eaton's office, 105 South La Salle street. Former Italian Consul Conte Bolognini recommended Attorney Eaton for the decoration.

N.B.—SHOPLIFTERS THE FINKELSTEIN GRIP FATAL ONE

"It's a hard life!" Max Finkelstein, 1213 East Forty-seventh street, says. Yesterday three women came into Finkelstein's emporium in search of a spring suit. They found it. Finkelstein, looking in a mirror, saw one of the women tuck an expensive dress under her coat.

"Where you goin' with that dress?" he inquired.

"What dress?" in chorus.

"The one you just took," replied Finkelstein, grabbing one of the ladies by the wrist. Finkelstein sat on her. The others escaped. At the station it was found the woman held was Harriet Knight, who has a police record as a shoplifter.

Elgin Beau Brummels Have Tailors Arrested

Elgin is going to receive a shock next winter when several of his Beau Brummels fall to appear in their new Easter suits. However, the shock is nothing to the one received yesterday by S. D. Kennedy of Kennedy & Co., a tailoring concern at 318 South Wabash avenue, and Henry Grossman, also a tailor. They were arrested yesterday charged with operating a confidence game. It was charged they started a club in Elgin, collected hundreds of dollars, and then failed to furnish the suits.

The children's adoptive parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. ## WOMAN'S MEMORY BRINGS GRIEF TO "MOLL BUZZER"

Spots Purse Snatcher, Has Him Arrested.

Last Tuesday noon Mrs. Gertrude Reisinger, 820 Altgeld street, employed by Herman Reel & Co., dealers in wool and fur at 21 West Kinzie street, went to the loop to transact some business for the concern.

At Madison and State streets an unusually polite man "saved" her from being run down by an automobile. At the next corner Mrs. Reisinger missed her pocketbook, containing $12.67 and some personal trinkets. But she remembered the man.

They Meet Again.

Yesterday at Madison and State streets she saw him again. She trailed him through department stores and drug stores, and finally called a policeman at Washington and State.

"That's him," she picked my pocket last Tuesday," she cried.

"Madam, you are mistaken. You are crazy," the man protested.

"I'm the sanest crazy woman you ever saw," said Mrs. Reisinger, as she started to central station with Police-man H. Weldon of the traffic squad.

Record as Shoplifter.

The man gave his name as Charles Burkhardt, 338 West Fifty-ninth street, protested his innocence, and demanded his release. But Detective Sergeant Philip Fitzsimmons said not. At the bureau of identification Burkhardt was found to have a record as a shoplifter.

RESTAURANT MEN OUTSIDE LOOP HIT AS PROFITEERS

Restaurant proprietors in outlying districts, where rent is less than half that in the loop, are vying with downtown restaurateurs in serving small portions at high prices, according to Russell J. Poole, secretary of the city council H. C. of L. committee.

Mr. Poole hit two outlying restaurants yesterday. In Askounis' restaurant at Clark and Division streets the investigator paid 15 cents for a ham sandwich containing three-quarters of an ounce of ham and two ounces of bread without butter.

In Kites' restaurant, 1 West Division street, Mr. Poole reported to Ald. Adamowski, chairman of the committee, that gross profits of more than 300 per cent are being made on these sandwiches sold at 15 cents each.

Concerning Spoeh's restaurant at 106 North State yesterday an investigator reported:

"Lettuce and tomato sandwich, 25 cents. Pull weight, six and three-quarter ounces, four ounces of which consisted of lettuce and tomato. Egg and green pepper sandwich, 35 cents; gross weight, four and one-quarter ounces; the egg weighed two and one-quarter ounces. Hot fudge sundish, 35 cents; war tax 4 cents, total 39 cents, consisting of three and three-quarters ounces of ice cream and two and three-quarter ounces of fudge sirup and whipped cream."

Another investigator brought in a 73-cent club breakfast purchased at Ald. Plaza hotel, 1551 North Clark street, consisting of one orange (126 size); ham, one and three-quarter ounces; one egg; Parker house roll, weight two and one-quarter ounces; cup of coffee, and one square of butter.

SEWELL DUPES CHARGE PLOT BY BIG OIL FIRMS

Gas King Hired to Ruin
Small Fry, They Say.

Charges that Henry B. Sewell, missing "gasoline wizard," was a member of a conspiracy to force small independent oil dealers out of business, and that thirteen concerns were compelled to shut down as a result of his $500,000 operations in Chicago, were made yesterday before Municipal Judge Charles C. Williams by counsel for the W. J. Newman company, contractors.

The Sinclair Refining company was seeking to collect $4,300 on a contract entered into between the Newman company and Sewell. The court ruled the contract was illegal, and that the Sinclair company could not collect. The Sinclair company will appeal the case.

Judge Williams also held the Newman company could not enforce the delivery of 19,000 gallons of gasoline still under contract at the below market rates offered by Sewell.

Agent for Big Companies, Claim.

O'Brien, Rutledge, Harrington & Carroll, counsel for the Newman company, contended Sewell was an agent of the Sinclair and Standard Oil companies in a plan to drive small oil dealers out of the field by underbidding them.

It was contended Sewell had established offices and contracted for the delivery of hundreds of thousands of gallons of gasoline at from 3 to 5 cents under the market price; that he had informed his customers he could get the oil from the Sinclair and Standard Oil companies, and that in most instances his customers previously had purchased from independent companies.

It was brought out the Sinclair company had knowledge of Sewell's operations, and had warned the Newman company, but continued delivering gasoline for which the Newman company continued to pay Sewell.

Contract Partially Upheld.

The Sinclair company denied Sewell ever had been authorized as its agent. The defense claimed some of the bills were stamped "paid" by Sinclair company representatives in Sewell's office. A peculiar feature of the court's decision was that the legality of the contract "as far as executed" was upheld. It was brought out that "Bob" Stewart, son of Col. Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of directors of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, had loaned Sewell sums ranging from $700 to $3,000 on few weeks' acquaintance, without notes or other security. Stewart testified all this money had been refunded, with dividends as high as 25 per cent.

KENTUCKY MAN DENIES $200,000 BOOZE SWINDLE

Fred D. Strickler, alleged promoter of a $200,000 booze swindle, was located at his home in Owensboro, Ky., last night. He denied the stories of two Milwaukee men, A. C. Margraff, a brick and tile manufacturer, and Carl Zeller, owner of a tobacco shop, who said they had paid Strickler $30,000 each for a carload of booze and promised him $45,000 more upon its delivery.

Strickler called the affair a "frame-up." He said the first of February I sold Margraff warehouse receipts for whiskey stored in the Glenmore distillery warehouse at Owensboro. He paid me $15,000," Strickler said. "The government then placed a ban on whiskey withdrawals, and Margraff couldn't obtain the liquor, I understand." Strickler said he would come here today to prove his innocence.

The Milwaukee men told the police they and a score of Chicagoans paid Strickler approximately $200,000 to negotiate a huge liquor transaction.

Two years ago Strickler organized the Owensboro Products company at a capital stock of $300,000. Recently the concern was thrown into bankruptcy, and the stockholders will lose everything, it is said.

Churches Will Try to Win Toddler and Movie Converts

Is "sweet sixteen" of today really interested in indoor sports except toddling and the movies? And how can the churches and young people's societies compete with moving picture palaces and cabarets? These questions will be talked over at the meeting this afternoon of recreation leaders at Central branch Y. W. C. A., 59 East Monroe street.

Chaplain Warren T. Powell, leader of young people's work in the Methodist Episcopal church, will speak.

AND THEN HE TOOK UP GOLF

STATE STREET'S PAVING RUSHED FOR BIG PAGEANT

Ordinances Ready for $357,000 Project.

Ordinances providing for the paving of State street, from Lake to Eleventh streets, at an estimated cost of $357,000 were transmitted to the city council yesterday by the board of local improvements.

Clerks are busy spreading statements on property adjoining the street in order to have the assessment roll ready to file soon after the council acts. An attempt is to be made to get the job done before the Pageant of Progress exposition opens on July 31.

"I cannot estimate when the job will be completed until I find out whether there will be any extended court fight," said Michael J. Faherty, president of the board.

Field Assessment Leads.

Unless the court orders a public benefit, the entire cost of the work will be paid by special assessment spread on property for a depth of half a block on both sides of the street. Some of the larger assessments, which vary according to street width, frontage, and depth of property, will be approximately as follows, according to present plans:

Frontage	Assessment
Marshall Field	384 1/2 $13,000
Palmer house	304 9,000
The Fair	190 7,000
Carson, Clark, Rose & Co.	285 10,500
Masonic Temple	174 5,500

Part of the street has not been repaved since 1904 and part since 1901. The work will be done "under traffic." Half of the street will be closed at a time. The concrete base for the asphalt pavement will be ten inches thick instead of six or seven, the ordinary thickness.

Granite Blocks for Tracks.

Granite blocks will be used along the street car tracks and 27,540 square yards of asphalt will be laid. Sewer repairs, including eighty-nine new brick patch basins, will cost $41,500, according to the estimates. The underground work alone will take two months, Mr. Faherty said.

1,500,000 Gallons of Booze in Local Warehouses

In Chicago's bonded warehouses there are a million and a half gallons of whisky, according to Harry W. Mager, collector of internal revenue. Based on the drug store price of $3 a pint, the liquor is valued at $35,000,000. Mr. Mager estimates the total amount of bonded whisky in storage in the United States at 30,000,000 gallons. This liquor may be moved within a few months, he said, if the law of property rights is upheld by the Supreme court.

BEG YOUR PARDON

EVANSTON MAN LEADER IN RACE FOR REVENUE JOB

Col. Clifford of 1714 Ashbury avenue, Evanston, a leading candidate for appointment by President Harding as commissioner of internal revenue, a $10,000 a year post, has returned home after a visit to the president. He said yesterday he did not discuss his candidacy with Mr. Harding.

"I had not heard until last night that my name had been proposed," he said.

"It may be Senator McCormick has recommended me for appointment on the suggestion of Gen. Dawes. Both are good friends of mine."

According to Washington dispatches, Col. Clifford is the leading candidate for the place. He is backed by both Senators McCormick and McKinley. Senator Ekins of West Virginia is pressing the claims of John T. McDermott of his own state, Victor Helms of Cincinnati, former congressman, is also a candidate.

"POLITICS" IN MERIT BOARD, WIEHE IS TOLD

John P. Collins, 63 year old veteran timekeeper for the West park board, who yesterday answered charges of using offensive language and conduct unbecoming an employee of the park, said his suspension and trial were on orders of Virtus Dohm, chief patronage dispenser of the Lunt-Thomas-Small political combination.

He was criticised by Christian F. Wiehe for giving a statement to THE TRIBUNE attributing his suspension to politics. He replied it was the truth; that the first official act of William J. Short, superintendent of employment, a Rohm appointee, was to order charges preferred against him. Henry Repeating, master mechanic, testified that on Sept. 1, 1920, Collins told him he was a "damn fool for hustling, that he would get no thanks for it." That and the fact that Collins had one time sworn while trying to get a telephone connection constituted the "offensive language charge." The case was taken under advisement.

Robbery Charges Against Wadsworth Stricken Off

Three charges of burglary and robbery against Guy Wadsworth, policeman-farmer-bandit, who turned state's evidence against Harry Andrade and Richard Wilson, charged with the murder of an aged night watchman, were yesterday stricken from court records. He had been promised immunity. Andrade and Wilson were recently acquitted on a second trial, after having been convicted and sentenced to death.

MULE LONG DEAD, BUT ITS LAWSUIT IS MARCHING ON

New Trial Latest in 7 Year Battle.

Once, seven years ago, a young and fussy mule wandered glumly around the Deerfield township pastures of Joseph R. Morris, a director of Peoples Gas. The mule was lonesome.

James F. Doyle, a neighbor, in whose adjacent fields some sixteen of the long eared quadrupeds disappeared, noticed the mule's melancholia and invited Morris to place it in his own collection. Morris did.

When Morris went to get his mule some months later there was a dispute. The mule, if it ever had a name, failed to answer it. Doyle declared Morris picked out a much better mule than the one he brought over.

Morris hired a lawyer and got a writ of replevin and the mule. Doyle had the writ set aside.

For six years the case dragged through the Lake county courts—at $20 a day for the taxpayers. Morris won twice and a jury disagreed at the third trial.

On June 20, 1920, Judge C. C. Edwards of Waukegan decided that Morris must give up the mule and pay Doyle $750—the equivalent of $10 a month—for the use of the mule for seventy-five months, as well as pay the costs of one trial in justice court and three hearings on appeal in the Circuit court—thousands of dollars.

The mule heard of the decision and died.

Morris appealed again and yesterday the Appellate court reversed the decision and remanded the case for trial. The mule lawsuit died.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons,
Picked at Random, a Question.

The Question.

Should women attend boxing bouts?

Where Asked.

Chicago avenue, between State street and the lake.

The Answers.

A. F. Wolff, 230 East Superior street, manager—Sure, let them go if they want to. I see no reason why they should not. I don't want any one telling me what to do, so why tell the women what they can or cannot do? There is nothing degrading about it if it is on the square.

Amy L. Vickery, 405 East Fifty-fifth street, secretary—Personally, I don't think they should go, but if some of them want to go, they should be allowed to. I don't suppose there is any harm in it, but I would not care to go to a ring side and watch them.

Ludwig Tronstad, 44 East Chicago avenue, chauffeur—I don't see why they shouldn't. They are mixed up in everything else these days, so let them go to the fights and see the boys mix it right. It might do some of them good to see a real good scrap.

Mrs. Lillian B. Long, 13 West Superior street, demonstrator—Yes, indeed, I surely do think women should attend boxing bouts. I think if more women would go to them instead of cabarets, we would have less trouble with them. I think that if boxing is properly handled and is on the square it is a good, clean sport.

E. S. Henry, 4746 Jackson boulevard, foreman of construction—Certainly women should attend boxing bouts. I think if they would get into the game in some way it would help keep it a good, clean sport. Some mothers forbid their boys to box. That is wrong. The boys should be allowed to box and wrestle, as it makes them more self-reliant and healthy.

TENANTS' UNFAIR RENT SIGNS ARE DECLARED LEGAL

Drive to Line Up Senators for Kessinger Bills.

As officials of the Chicago Tenants' Protective association yesterday prepared to carry their fight for the passage of the Kessinger bills direct to the state senators who are listed as "doubtful" or "uncertain," the tenants won another important victory before Judge Charles M. Foell in Superior court.

With tenants occupying every available seat in the courtroom, a bill for an injunction to restrain the displaying of placards in windows denouncing landlords as "rent hogs and profiteers" was withdrawn when the judge stated he did not have the power to restrain free speech.

Petition for an injunction had been filed by Attorney Francis E. Hinchley, representing Charles Gobel, 5438 University avenue, who recently raised the rent of five tenants from $52.50 to $85 a month. The tenants, defendants in the petition, posted placards in their windows denouncing the landlord and refusing to move on May 1.

Holds Tenants Are Morally Wrong.

The elation of the tenants was tempered when Judge Foell announced that morally they were wrong in exhibiting such placards, but that legally, in the absence of any similar cases in the past, he had no jurisdiction to restrain them.

Officials of the Chicago Tenants' Protective association arranged to have committees call upon state senators residing in or near Chicago who are not favorably to the Kessinger bills, or whose attitude is doubted.

"We plan to carry this fight direct to those senators," said E. A. Potter, business manager of the association. "The legislature adjourns yesterday, and most of the senators are at their homes to remain over the week end. We hope to have committees see them at once."

Mr. Potter advised victims of profiteering landlords to write to their senator, stating the case. Another stack of complaints also is being prepared to be presented to the legislature when it reconvenes next Tuesday.

Kessinger Suggests Campaign.

Senator Harold G. Kessinger of Aurora, sponsor of the two bills, suggested the tenant association officials visit the doubtful senators.

"See these men as soon as possible," he said. "Show them that the great mass of their electors demand the passage of the bills, and when all the senators in Chicago are in favor of them, it won't be hard to decide the rest of the state."

The Chicago senators listed as "doubtful" are: James E. MacMurray, 4932 Lake Park avenue; Frederick P. Roos, 512 Marengo avenue, Forest Park; James J. Barbour, 7622 Sheridan road; Frank P. Sadler, 6565 Yale avenue; Edward J. Glackin, 745 Leys avenue; John T. Denver, 1547 South Crawford avenue; Henry W. Austin, 1922 Lake street; Daniel Herlihy, 2743 North Albany avenue, and Edward J. Hughes, 3335 Fulton street.

Urges Tenants to Keep Fighting.

J. Ritchie Patterson, president of the Tenants' association, warned tenants in Chicago against overconfidence and called upon them to keep on fighting. The delegation to Springfield must have mass meetings, he said. They should now be no time to stop. They should carry the fight on harder than before, he urged.

Zoological Gardens Bill Will Go to Legislature

Commissioners of the Forest Preserve district and trustees of the Chicago Zoological society yesterday mapped out a bill to be presented to the present legislature for the erection of a zoological garden on the 200 acres of land donated by Mrs. Harold McCormick. Judson F. Stone, Charles H. Wacker, B. E. Sunny, Howard Lian, Edward L. Glaser, Francis E. Manierre, Elmore Stevens, A. G. Becker, and Oscar J. Foreman were the members of the zoological society in attendance. Daniel Ryan succeeded the late Peter Reinberg as chairman of the commissioners of the Forest Preserve district.

New Secretary of Navy Will Speak Here April 27

Secretary of the Navy Denby accepted yesterday an invitation to address the Union League club of Chicago April 27. The invitation was extended by F. W. Shaffert. While in Chicago the new secretary of the navy will inspect the Great Lakes training station. He will be urged to include an appropriation in the next naval bill for renewal this summer of the training school for high school boys.

"Q" DECLINES STOCK DIVIDEND OF $61,700,000

BY O. A. MATHER.

Capitalization of a part of the huge surplus of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad company by declaration of a stock dividend was announced yesterday by the directors. The stock dividend is 54 per cent plus 1.32, or 60,984 shares of about $1,000,000 par value, payable to stockholders of record March 21. The action was approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The stock dividend will rebound chiefly to the benefit of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern railroads, which jointly own the Burlington through control of 77.4 per cent of the outstanding $110,000,000 capital stock. The new stock will be capitalized from the Burlington's surplus, which now stands at about $218,000,000. Holders of the $1,750,000 stock recently were offered $200 a share.

Step Toward Refunding.
The stock dividend is a preliminary step by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern toward refunding their joint issue of $110,000,000 of 4 per cent bonds, which mature July 1. Just how the new stock will be used has not been decided. Although approving the stock dividend, the Interstate Commerce Commission recently refused permission for the Burlington to issue a bond dividend of $100,000,000. It is understood officials of all three roads and their legal representatives are working on a substitute plan for refunding which will be submitted to the directors within the next few days.

The impression is gaining ground that the refunding operation will take the form of a new joint bond issue, but at a higher rate of interest than the old 4 per cent bonds. The security behind such an issue would be unexcelled in the western transportation field, as much of the Burlington's large earnings in the last decade have been reinvested in the property.

Change Reserve Ratio Basis.
Orders have been issued by the federal reserve board to the twelve federal reserve banks to figure their reserves hereafter against the new ratio of 16 per cent for computing the reserve ratio on the basis of the new banking system. The change will be made in today's weekly statements.

The result of this change will be that the banks will have to hold a greater amount of cash reserves in proportion to deposits in order to show as favorable a ratio as the board to change the method of figuring reserves at the end of the year. This is a reflection of the improvement in the reserve position of the banks.

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE: SATURDAY, MARCH 19, 1921.

CHICAGO STOCK TRANSACTIONS.

Chicago stocks were moderately active yesterday and prices were irregular. There were some rather sharp changes in several issues in which trading here showed sudden activity and was advanced 3 1/2 points, but during the rest of the day the market was fairly quiet. The annual report will be issued soon and is not expected to show large change. The Beaver Board again was under sharp pressure and dropped 6 points to 17, accelerated by the decline from 60 in the last few months, the movement being checked fractionally, while Union Carbide and Lumber-McDonald's preferred stock declined 2 points each, while American Radiator, Quaker Oats and Sears-Roebuck were recorded, twenty shares selling at 102.

STOCKS RILLY, CLOSE HIGHER, AFTER DECLINE

On the stock exchange, where the action of prices was again watched with interest in other markets, another rally occurred today, followed by a decline. The result was to leave the range of prices as a whole higher at the close.

On the previous day professional pressure had been applied to the railway shares, while industrial stocks were being repurchased; early selling of industrial shares was made on the basis for repurchases of the railway shares, and the railway shares closed at a substantial net advance, and other stocks, though with more or less irregularity, moved in the main upward.

The recovery did not take place until some distinct showing of weakness in connection with a new low was reached on the Philadelphia railroad stock, which sold at the lowest price since it touched 2 1/2 in the Philadelphia market. Columbia Graphophone preferred was heavily sold and dropped 6 1/2 points to a low mark. Consolidated Cigars dropped 1 point, against these declines General Electric, American and preferred advanced 3 1/2 and 4 1/2, respectively; General Electric, and West Indies, 2 1/2, and Atlantic Gulf, 1 1/2.

The slightly easier money market, which has prevailed since completion of the tax collections continued today, but without giving indication of any definite trend. A slight further advance in sterling exchange again brought the rate and active buying of exchange on Italy, carried the day's quotation for lire nearly 1/2 above last week's low rate.

PRODUCE MARKETS.
Eggs dropped 1/2 to 2 1/2 for fresh standard, with a fair trade on, although the best of the 24 cases were not cleaned up. Live poultry sold at former prices. Only 700 cases of eggs in the market. Potatoes in the market. The market for the offerings for the day by the dealers in the market.
